An humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury and Gentlemen, at the Aſſize held for the County of Hertford at Hertford-Town, on the 12th of March 1715. Venice, March 13. On the 10th Inſtant the Electoral Prince of Bavaria ſet out from hence for Rome: The Electoral Prince of Saxony continues here. This Week M. Alexander Cunningham, His Britannick Majeſty's Reſident here, deſired to have a publick Audience; the Ceremonial is now ſettling, and 'tis thought Audience will be granted him next Week. Yeſterday the Doge received a Courier from Vienna, but the Contents of the Letters are not yet known. The Court of Rome, as we learn by Letters from thence of the 7th Inſtant, is under ſome Apprehenſions, that the Turkiſh Fleet may this Summer make a Deſcent in Italy. For raiſing a preſent Supply of Money, the Pope has under Conſideration the Selling of all the Offices in the Apoſtolical Chamber, and providing for the preſent Officers by conferring on them Eccleſiaſtical Preferments to the Value of their Employments. Theſe Advices add, That the Pope has remitted a Sum of Money to the Emperour, on Condition of his declaring War againſt the Infidels; and offers to grant a Cruſade for raiſing more in the Empire.

Genoa, March 24. The Pope has ſent hither Sig. Feretti, who has already hired four large Genoueſe Ships, and is treating for ſome others, which are deſigned to act in Conjunction with the Venetian Fleet: And 'tis given out that the King of Spain will ſend ſeven Men of War, and the King of Portugal five, to be at the Pope's Diſpoſal. The Worceſter, a Britiſh Man of War, Captain Thomas Kempthorne Commander, is now at Leghorne, but is to ſail the firſt fair Wind for Port Mahon.

Ratisbon, March 26. To Day Prince Clement of Bavaria was choſen Biſhop of Ratisbon, in the Room of his Uncle the Elector of Cologne, who reſigned laſt Chriſtmas: The ſaid Prince has now the Pope's Bull, by which his Age is diſpenſed with; for want of which Formality his Election as Coadjutor ſome Months ago, had been declared void by the Court of Rome. Letters from Segedin of the 15th Inſtant, bring only the Confirmation of the former Advices relating to the great Preparations of the Turks; tho' all was yet very quiet on thoſe Frontiers.

Copenhagen, March 28. On the 25th an Expreſs arrived from Norway, with an Account that the King of Sweden, with about 15000 Men, having made an Irruption into Norway, has poſſeſſed himſelf of Chriſtiania, 3000 Danes who were poſted to cover that Place, having been obliged to retire to Agerhuys. General Lutzau was drawing together all the Forces he could near Brugeneſs, in order to oppoſe the further Progreſs of the Swedes. The King of Sweden had cauſed a Manifeſto to be publiſhed, inviting the Norwegians to ſubmit to him. Yeſterday a Frigate called the White Eagle, was diſpatched to Norway, having on board Major-General Sponeck, and Adjutant General Leuenorn: And to Morrow or next Day Vice Admiral Gabel will ſail, with ſix Men of War and three Frigates, having on Board eight Companies of Norwegians which have been in Garriſon here ſome Time, 4000 other Foot, and a good Number of Officers.

Hambourg, March 31. The Czar continues at Dantzick, where the Duke of Mecklenbourg is arrived, and the King of Poland is daily expected. We have Advice from Petersbourg, that fourteen Ruſſian Men of War were ready to put to Sea, in order to joyn the Daniſh Fleet; and that a conſiderable Number of Land-Forces was to imbark on thoſe Men of War.

Hague, April 3. This Evening the Ratification of the Treaty for renewing the Alliances between the Crown of Great Britain and this Republick, was diſpatched to England, in order to be exchanged with that of his Britannick Majeſty. 'Tis adviſed from Vienna, that the Emperour has committed the Adminiſtration of the Government of the Auſtrian Netherlands to the Marquiſs de Prie; who would ſoon ſet out for Bruſſels: And that Count Gallas was returned thither from the Court of Rome. The States have reſolved to cauſe 6 Men of War of 52 Guns and upwards to be forthwith fitted out, as their Contingent of a Squadron deſigned to convoy and ſecure the Trade in the Baltick.
